

GOLDEN OLDIES!

TOP TEN REASONS TO ADOPT AN OLDER CAT!

- #10 The personality of an older cat is already known - making it easier to match you with the right cat!
- #9 Older Cats are generally less demanding than youngsters, and need less supervision
- #8 If you work outside the home, an adult cat is much better able to content itself while you are out than a youngster
- #7 Most older cats are seeking little more than a warm lap, regular food and love!
- #6 Adult cats from a rescue will be neutered, litter trained, and calmer than a youngster
- #5 If you have an older cat already, another oldie, carefully introduced, can be less stressful for him/her than a kitten
- #4 Cats regularly live into their late teens these days, so most seniors will have many years of life and love to give
- #3 A senior puss is unlikely to leap up on your shelves and knock your ornaments off, or to climb up your curtains!
- #2 Mature Mogs are so grateful to have found a loving home again - they will repay your love ten-fold!
- #1 And last but by no means least ... Senior Kittizens Rock! (between naps)
